

Scientific Seminar on Organic Food 2014 – open, critical and collaborative approaches

WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOP 1: Organic Primary Production, Environment and Product Quality

7.11.2014 9:00-10:30 am

Kyyhkylä Manor, Naakka cabinet

Chair: Carina Tikkanen-Kaukanen

Each presentation takes 10 min and following 5 min is reserved for discussion

9:00 Kaija Hakala: Cereals with shorter straw are better, also in organic farming

9:15 Vladislav Minin: Prospects of development of organic production in Russia

9:30 Zillur Rahman: Risk ignorance and IT oriented VET to improve Organic-Green Agricultural system

9:45 Pekka Kilpeläinen: Urolithins show both antioxidant and pro-oxidant activities depending on assay

10:00 Carina Tikkanen-Kaukanen: Antibacterial activity of organic honey against food pathogenic Clostridium perfringens

WORKSHOP 2: Organic Products and Society

7.11.2014 9:00-11:00 am

Kyyhkylä Rustholli, Sauna cabinet

Chair : Minna Mikkola

Each presentation takes 10 min and following 5 min is reserved for discussion

9:00 Jaakko Nuutila: The Finnish organic food chain – an activity theory approach

9:15 Petteri Puska: Signaling status through favoring organic foods.

9:30 Jessica Aschemann-Witzel: Organic food health perception and communication at a crossroad?

9:45 Helmi Risku-Norja: Quality differentiation, volume and economic performance of organic food value chains: Preliminary results from a cross country analysis

10:00 Kaisa Kuoppala: SOLID project promotes organic and low input dairying in Europe

10:15 Terhi Latvala: Identifying future challenges of the organic milk supply chain in Europe

10:30 Anne Hytönen: From science to practice: best practice models as source of information and ideas – a case study among researchers and stakeholders

10:45 Susanna Keskinarkaus: Organic NWFP and the Novel Food Regulation